There was one problem last Saturday with an interpreter. But otherwise, things are going well.

MEETING REPRESENTATIVES

Barrett (Open Minded Mens): Doing okay. Attendance from deaf has dropped but otherwise good.

John (No Barriers): Happening everyday with no interpreter. It is growing. People from out of state.

Jeffrey (4th Dimension): The meeting is smaller.

Mark (Spiritual Awakenings): Not asking for $ from the committee, handling payment/coordinating themselves.

Natalie (Carlsbad Workshop): No problems. At least 2 deaf members attending regularly. Problems with bombing

Kristen (Joy of Living): Not present.

Joe (Designs for Living): Everything is going well.

Cait (La Mesa Beginners):

Sarah (Drunks Only): Not present.

Randy (Socal): Decent attendance. Not a lot of people taking service commitments.

Bryan (Old Towns): All good.

OLD BUSINESS

Jeffrey changed the order for ASL big book and 12&12 from 5 copies to 1 because they are just using them to display not to sell. Sandra Workshop has been postponed. Looking into apps that might be able to help.

NEW BUSINESS

Renea / Joy of Living has been having difficulty collecting enough money to pay the interpreter. The treasurer is going to get back to her.

Jeffrey / Presents the new website.

Jeffrey / Does the committee want to separate the District 6 funds from the Gold can funds? There has been a dilemma because the person that opens the account has to use their social security number.

Mark / It is easy to get an EIN number.

Renea / the problem is the social security number. It would make the person liable. There are a lot of hoops to go through to get an EIN.

Karen / For a simple EIN, you wouldn't be responsible for it. Don't want to use your own bank account.

Natalie / They asked for two people on her account, but there was only one.

Jeffrey / Might be able to use Venmo then to be able to take funds. We will come back to this.

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 pm

Next meeting: Tuesday May 26th.

RESPONSIBILITY PLEDGE: I am responsible when anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there and for that, I am responsible.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Joe B
